

International Conference “Epistemic Injustice and Public Arguments”

Argumentation, Cognition and Language Lab – NOVA Institute of Philosophy
School of Social Sciences and Humanities – NOVA University of Lisbon (NOVA FCSH)
Campus de Campolide – Colégio Almada Negreiros 1099-085 Lisboa
18–19 September 2024

Programme

September 18

9:00 Opening and registration

9:30 – 10:30 | Keynote speaker: Miranda Fricker (New York University, USA)

Coffee break

11:00 – 13:00

Epistemic injustice, norms and public deliberation

Eva Schmidt (Universität Münster)

Considering Epistemic Injustice in Deliberative Democracy Theory: Public Deliberation and Hermeneutical Injustice

Sophie Lauwers (KU Leuven)

Rethinking Norms for Public Argumentation: Secularism, Public Reason and Epistemic Injustice

Volker Kaul (University di Salerno)

Situatedness, Identity, and the Scope of Public Discourse

Ivan Mladenovic (University of Belgrade)

Fighting Epistemic Injustice in Public Deliberation

Lunch

14:30 – 16:00

Epistemic injustice in legal contexts and practices

Alex Alexis (Université de Montreal/Université Paris 1)

From epistemic to ontological (in)justice: Investigating Indigenous claims before settler courts

Linh Mac (University of Tennessee at Knoxville)
Krinostic Injustice

Eleonora Volta (Università San Raffaele Milan)
From Silencing to Extracted Testimony in Trials for Gender-Based Violence: a Performative Approach

Coffee break

16:30 – 18:00

Epistemic injustice, epistemic resistance and disprivilege

Jingjing Wu (University of Southern Denmark)
Understanding Epistemic Injustice towards Indigenous People when Representing and Protecting Nature

Claudia Galgau (KU Leuven)
Conceptual double standards and the system of violence against migrants

Eugenia Stefanello (Università di Padova)
When Ignorance is Bliss: Phenomenological Empathy and Loving Ignorance as Forms of Epistemic Resistance

September 19

9:30 – 10:30 | Keynote speaker: José Medina (Northwestern University, USA)

Coffee break

11:00 – 13:00

Epistemic injustice, epistemic resistance and protest

Álvaro Domínguez Armas and Marcin Lewiński (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)
Revisiting the communicative dimension of protests

Jordi Fairhurst Chilton (Universitat de les Illes Balears & KU Leuven)
Minimizing Epistemic Injustice in Deep Disagreements

Nalliely Hernández and Melissa Amezcua (Universidad de Guadalajara)
Rorty's "Redescription" as Resistance to Hermeneutical Injustice: The Case of Femicide in Mexico

Dima Mohammed (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

Public Argument as Epistemic Resistance

Lunch

14:30 – 16:00

Epistemic resistance and virtues

Nine-Marie van Veijeren (Stellenbosch Universiteit)

Relational open-mindedness: a virtue epistemological consideration of political deliberation and polarisation on social media

George Surtees (University of Sheffield)

The Intellectually Humble Response to 'Tradwife' Testimony

Leonardo Barros da Silva Menezes (Universidade do Minho)

Why are grateful refugees epistemically harmed?

Coffee break

16:30 – 17:30

Epistemic resistance and epistemic justice

Amandine Catala (Université du Québec à Montreal)

Epistemic Injustice, Transformative Experience, and Epistemic Empowerment: Reclaiming the Public Discourse on Neurodiversity

Valentina Cuccio and Francesca Ervas (Università di Messina - Università di Cagliari)

Epistemic injustice and metaphor resistance in the debate on schizophrenia

17:30 Closing remarks